1.1 Release Notes and Notices

This section provides information about what is new or changed, including urgent issues, Software & documentation updates, maintenance and new releases.

- 'Updates' are the term used to describe significant changes to our public source code. These technical documents are now contained within our public source code.

1.1.1 Version 0.0.1 (Alpha)

This is the first release/ draft of this technical document.

Older Versions

There are no Older Versions of this document, however a table has been made so that enteries can be made. We're also still exploring how exactly we will make links to the Older Versions possible. Perhaps a PDF snapshot will do, before the directory is overwritten with the next version. The sphinx methodology is new to our team, we're still exploring this and other options for maintaining technical documents for this project:
